

Julie Winbun –
Enterprise Sales Director
Windstream Technologies

Julie Winbun is a lifelong Indianapolis resident and mother of 4 children living in Westfield, Indiana. Julie graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Telecom/Marketing and has a Masters' degree from Indiana Wesleyan. She spent 22 years with AT&T in Media, Technology, and Innovation. While at AT&T Julie lead her divisions CWA missions to help the community and needs of less fortunate.

Julie has always been drawn to children and helping to lift the weak and love the lonely. She took her love of technology to work as a consultant for Tech Start Ups nationally to help them with go to market strategies, partnerships and acquisitions. In March of 2018, Julie joined a newly formed Enterprise Direct division of Windstream, selling customer experience software, network infrastructure, security/compliance, WIFI, voice and cloud enablement applications to Indiana based Enterprise, as well as, non-profits. Her sole focus is to learn how to help those with a lean budgets get the most from their IT budget in order to enable innovation.

Passion- from the early days of lifeguarding at Braeburn Village and the Moose Lodge Julie has a passion for helping youth build discipline, confidence and purpose. In her 20's she was very active in Cystic Fibrosis and Big Brothers Big Sister; grateful for the opportunity to interact and make a difference. Once she became a Mom, living in a suburb of Indy, she realized that so many children were affected by hardship, lack of mentors and resources. She and Deb Lewis began a charity to provide prom attire to Indiana teens in need free of charge. Over the past thirteen years they have helped thousands of girls feel magical at Prom. She also helps with DECA and Open doors of Hamilton County.

Through dealing with the struggles of single parenting and divorce Julie began growing in her faith and is a member of Northview church. Her walk in faith lead to a conversation with her childhood friend Todd Melloh. He shared the impact Beyond This was making on our youth and Julie was honored to be a part of his mission. Julie knows that God's purpose in life for her is to help mentor, encourage and lead our youth to find their purpose, trust and follow their journey of faith to make an impact on the world and the future of others.
